

BC Rail and CAW 110

Remove Named Arbitrator

The parties agree to amend Articles 22 and 23 of the BC Rail/CAW 110 Collective Agreement as follows:

22.1.2 Should the grievance remain unsettled for a period of seven (7) calendar days from the date of its written submission by one party to the other, or for such longer time as the parties may agree to, then it shall be referred to an arbitrator agreed upon by the parties for final settlement without stoppage of work as prescribed by the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

22.1.3 Should the parties be unable to reach agreement on the selection of the arbitrator, the selection shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions of the British Columbia Labour Relations Code.

23.1.4 The negotiations referred to in Clause 23.1.2 shall be conducted between the Vice-President, Operations (or his delegate) and the General Chairperson and shall commence within twenty (20) days of the date of the notice specified in Clause 23.1.1. If the negotiations do not result in mutual agreement within thirty (30) calendar days of their commencement, a Joint Statement Of Issue, or Issues, remaining in dispute may be referred within seven (7) days by either party to a single Arbitrator agreed upon by the parties. Should the parties be unable to reach agreement on the selection of the arbitrator, the selection shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions of the British Columbia Labour Relations Code.
